FEW FAILURES REPORTED FOR OCTOBER.

The Smallest in Four Years—Unseasonably Mild Weather Still Has a Bad Effect on Business—Wheat Shows a Slight Loss From the Close of Last Week

New York, Nov. 6.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: "Stronger proof of the great change in the condition of business could not be given than is found in the detailed report of failures by branches of business for the month of October. Though swelled by a few large speculative or brokerage failures, the aggregate was smaller than in any other month for more than four years, except in July and August and one month in 1894. The manufacturing and trading failures, $7,823,199, against $7,830,811 in September and $7,760,835 in August, include one for each $1,000,000. During the four years iron manufacturing failures have not been smaller except in one month; wool manufacturing except in two months; leather and shoes and unclassified manufacturing except in four months, and cotton manufacturing except in six months. Of trading classes failures have never been smaller in groceries, jewelry and books except in one month; in clothing, furniture and unclassified trading except in two months, and ten manufacturing and eleven trading classes out of fourteen, each have never reported smaller failures in a third of the last forty-eight months."

UTE INDIANS QUIET.

Latest Reports State That the Depredations Have Come to an End.

Washington, Nov. 6.—The following advices as to the Ute Indian trouble were received at the war department Friday from General Otis at Denver: "Under date of Nov. 3 Captain Wright, commanding troops in northwestern Colorado, reports that he scouted Snake river, Lilly Park and Cross Mountains, Nov. 1. Visited Thompson's ranch and camped where the Indians were killed by game wardens. Families in Lilly Park returned to the ranches on the same date. Nov. 2 he sent out scouting parties in all directions—to Douglass springs, Disappointment canon, Elk springs and Cross mountains. No indications were found of the presence of Indians since the affair with the game wardens. No depredations have been committed by the Indians. He will camp to-night at Box Elder and tomorrow at K ranch on the return trip unless otherwise directed. The commanding officer at Fort Duchesne telegraphs that conditions at the agencies remain unchanged."

CLEW TO BANK ROBBERS.

Shipshewana Affair May Lead to Discovery of a Band of Thieves.

LaGrange, Ind., Nov. 6.—Some startling developments have been made in the Shipshewana bank robbery, giving a clew to an organized gang of thieves. It is now definitely known that the men actually engaged in the robbery, of whom there were not more than two, were met at Middlebury by accomplices in a carriage and driven to White Pigeon. There the early morning Chicago newspaper train was boarded. The robbery of the Wakarusa bank, the Shipshewana bank, the LaGrange county treasurer's office and several Illinois banks were committed after the same manner. The headquarters of the gang is supposed to be in Chicago, with rendezvous at Elkhart, Toledo and Detroit. From each of the robberies the men have been tracked to where they boarded the train, and as soon as Toledo was reached all trace was lost.

Churches Ask Assistance.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 6.—Friday's Methodist Episcopal Church Extension Society was devoted wholly to a consideration of the amounts asked for from the various conferences for church extension. Bishop Cranston, of Portland, Ore., declared that many churches which have been aided by the society have become wholly indifferent in respect of helping the work of the church extension. Bishop McCabe, of Fort Worth, Texas, deplored the assistance given by the society to churches which cost more than $10,000. No action was reached on the subject, and after a somewhat lively debate on ways and means of securing funds, the whole matter, on suggestion of Bishop Newman, was referred to a committee.

Senator Wolcott Returns.

New York, Nov. 6.—Senator Edward O. Wolcott of Colorado and Gen. Charles J. Paine, two of the monetary commissioners appointed by President McKinley to confer with European governments concerning the feasibility of establishing international bimetallism, arrived here Friday on the steamship Campania. Charles D. Lane, chairman of the national silver party, was also a passenger on the Campania. Referring to the mission of the monetary commissioners, Mr. Lane had not expected anything better from the European governments. They were against bimetallism, but he was of the opinion that the people of this country would eventually adopt it independently of European powers.

Fever Death Rate Increases.

New Orleans, Nov. 6.—The record of yellow fever cases and deaths is disappointing. The death rate is higher than it has been for several days and the number of new cases is not as small as the board of health officials predicted it would be. The situation, while it has not improved any, is not considered worse. The warm weather which was experienced here Friday, 80 in the shade, has not helped the patients along any.

McKay's Body Found.

Haverstraw, N. Y., Nov. 6.—The body of Algernon W. McKay, who lost his life in the New York Central railroad disaster at Garrison's, was found floating in the middle of the river off Ionia island, four miles below the scene of the wreck Friday. McKay was the private secretary of Superintendent Van Etten and was riding on the engine when it plunged into the river.

Sultan Will Force Matters.

London, Nov. 6.—The Constantinople correspondent of the Times says: "The sultan peremptorily refuses to permit lights in the Dardanelles or the Gulf of Salonica until the peace treaty between Turkey and Greece has been signed. The order of the palace to the porte regarding the Bulgarian berat is to temporize; and the Bulgarian agent here threatens to demand his passports."

BITTER OHIO FIGHT
OVER ELECTIONINTERESTING QUESTION RAISED
BY DEMOCRATS.

Soldiers' Homes Affected—Claim Is Made That Under a Federal Court Decision Inmates of Such Institutions Have No Right to Vote—The Situation in Maryland

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 6.—[Special]—Complete official returns give the legislature to the republicans by five. Three members, however, declare that they will not vote for Hanna.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 6.—A plan is on foot here which if successfully carried through will give the legislature to the Democrats by a majority of one on joint ballot. The claim will be set forth that the Soldiers' home vote at Dayton is illegal. An attempt will be made to throw out this vote, which carried Montgomery county for the Republicans and elected three Republican representatives. There were 1,800 votes polled at the Soldiers' home. If thrown out the three Democratic nominees for the legislature will be elected, making a difference of six votes.

The claim that the Soldiers' home vote is illegal is based on a decision of the United States court rendered in Cincinnati. The state food and dairy commissioner had Gov. Thomas and other authorities of the house arraigned for an alleged violation of the pure-food law. Gov. Thomas set forth the claim that the home was a government reservation and not amenable to state laws, and that such was the agreement between the state of Ohio and the federal government when the location of the home was agreed upon. The United States courts at Cincinnati sustained Gov. Thomas' claim. A further claim is set forth that the Soldiers' homes at Marion, Ind., Milwaukee, Leavenworth and on the Pacific coast are government reservations, under the same conditions, and as such the residents therof are not given the right of suffrage. On these grounds the attempt will be made to throw out the Soldiers' home vote. The Republicans declare the scheme to be ridiculous, but Democrats think differently.

That there is much opposition to Senator Hanna's re-election there can be no doubt. The action of the Republican state convention at Toledo last spring in endorsing Hanna for senator has no effect now. By no means all the county conventions instructed for Hanna. Many members elect are absolutely unfettered except in so far as they may feel themselves bound to respect the wishes of a state convention.

SITUATION IN MARYLAND.

Maryland Legislature Will Probably Be Anti-Gorman.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 6.—The Evening News (ind. dem.) publishes a report to the effect that one of the Democratic supervisors of election in Somerset county refuses to sign the returns from that county, thus making it possible for the Republicans to lose the three members of the legislature claimed to have been elected from that county on Tuesday last. The report has caused considerable uneasiness at Republican state headquarters, although the Republicans will be able to organize the house without Somerset county's vote.

Murray Vandiver, chairman of the Democratic state committee, admits Senator Gorman's defeat on the face of the returns, and added that he was convinced of their correctness.

Contest at Dubuque, Iowa.

Dubuque, Iowa, Nov. 6.—William H. Duggan, Democratic candidate for sheriff, defeated by 138 votes, will contest Haubenschild's election. Duggan ran 2,000 behind the ticket. It is believed hundreds put a cross in the circle at the head of the Democratic ticket and one before Haubenschild's name. These ballots cannot be counted for Haubenschild under the new law.

New Iron Mine Found.

Crystal Falls, Mich., Nov. 6.—The most important iron ore discovery on the Menominee range in several years has been made a few miles east of this city. The find is located on the bend of the Michigan river, one mile south of the Mansfield mine. The drill hole was put down at an angle of eighty degrees and struck the ore at the depth of 117 feet. From that point to a depth of 194 feet the drill encountered nothing but clean ore that assays 62 per cent in iron and safely within the Bessemer limit. The formation is known to dip west at an angle of about eighty degrees, and as the drill hole was driven to the east the width of the vein must be about forty feet.

AN ANSWER TO SPAIN IS IN PREPARATION

STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS IN CONSULTATION.

No Change in Policy Likely—Full Text of the Correspondence Will Be Submitted to Congress—Spanish Government Preparing to Reply to Minister Taylor's Attack.

Washington, Nov. 6.—The full text of the Spanish reply to the note of United States Minister Woodford has reached the state department in the last mail and is now under examination by the officials. The president will make this note and the correspondence leading up to it the basis for one of the most important chapters of his forthcoming message to congress upon the reassembling of that body in December next, and meanwhile it is not believed to be probable that any radical change in policy will characterize the correspondence between the two countries unless something unforeseen occurs.

It appears that the determination of the Spanish cabinet to court-martial Gen. Weyler, while not directly due to a request of this government, was probably inspired by an intimation from the state department that his utterances were not such as to smooth the way of the negotiations. It is surmised that by thus acting with promptness the Spanish cabinet has paved the way for a counter-remonstrance against the publications of ex-United States Minister Hannis Taylor.

HASTE TO FINISH WARSHIPS.

New York, Nov. 6.—The Brooklyn Navy Yard is active, and work on all the war vessels lying at the wharfs or in the dry docks is being pushed forward as rapidly as possible under orders from the navy department. No one seems to understand why so much haste is necessary, and inquiries are met with the invariable reply: "It is nothing unusual. We are obeying orders issued some time ago; that is all. We always finish work at this station as rapidly as we can. Spain's naval activities have nothing to do with our industry."

An officer attached to the office of the commandant of the yard said that he believed some sort of order had been received to urge the completion of the two new vessels which are at the yard making preparations for their final trials under the board of inspection. These vessels are the torpedo boat Foote and the big battleship Iowa.

No Increase in Wages.

Quincy, Ill., Nov. 6.—General Manager Savin of the Omaha, Kansas City and Eastern railway has refused to grant the trainmen of that road an increase in wages as demanded through their committee, which has been here for the past week working for the raise. The petition for raise in wages was signed by engineers, firemen, brakemen and conductors on both passenger and freight runs. Members of the committee declined to say whether or not the refusal to grant the demand would result in a strike. All that any of them would say was that they proposed to get an increase.

Schools Broaden Their Curriculum.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 6.—The city and town school superintendents of Indiana at their session Friday decided that it is a mistake to teach American history to the exclusion of world history in the lower grades. BIG MOUNTAIN OF GOLD.

El Dorado Believed to Have Been Found

In Wyoming.

Rawlins, Wyo., Nov. 6.—News has reached here of the discovery of gold at Grand Encampment in such quantities as staggers belief.

It is thought the true El Dorado has been found. Mining experts who have looked over the ground believe that development will uncover an entire mountain of gold, which will relegate all other gold districts to insignificance.

Wyoming has suddenly blazed up as the possible, even probable, richest country in the world. People here and all around are mad. Everybody is rushing to Grand Encampment in spite of snow and cold. The excitement is higher than anything within the memory of the oldest miner, not excepting the days of '49.

Grand Encampment is sixty miles from the nearest railroad. It is situated in the heart of the Sierra Madre Mountains. It lies west of the Platte River. The nearest towns are Rawlins, Saratoga, Walcott and Fort Steele. The district is one of the most rugged and wildest in the west, but there is no Klondike desolation there, for the resources are ample.

The whole number of pensioners on the rolls June 30, 1897, was 97,014. The net gain over the previous year was 5,336."

Terrible Tragedy in Quebec Is Attributed to a Tramp.

Ottawa, Can., Nov. 6.—Word has reached here of a horrible affair at the village of St. Julien in the Parish of Rawdon, Que. Four young children of Michael McNulty, a farmer near the village, have been murdered. McNulty and his wife went to the village yesterday. When they returned they found the four children's throats cut and their bodies dreadfully hacked.

A tramp of slightly unsound mind, who frequented the village, is suspected. He is missing, but a large searching party is after him.

New Deal on the Yukon.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 6.—From one of the members of Hon. Mr. Sifton's party it is understood the minister will recommend to the government the modification of Yukon region mining laws as to the collection of royalty, to the extent that such an amount of the output as is required to work the claims will be exempt; also that government will reserve claims in blocks of ten, and that the size of the claims will be increased to 150 feet.

COURTESY DRAWS

IN EVERY BUSINESS

N. C. FOWLER'S THIRD ARTICLE
TO BUSINESS MEN.

The Eminent Advertising Expert Points Out That the Great Magnet of Trade, the Costless But Priceless Necessity, Is Regard For the Amenities.

(Copyrighted 1897, by Nath'l. Fowler, Jr.)
Courtesy is a commodity.
Politeness is merchandise.

Neither costs anything to produce, nor anything to keep.

Both are costless and priceless.
Both are necessary in the conduct of business.

The gentleman may not be a man; but the man of success is almost always a gentleman.

Gentlemanly bearing, although it may not be any deeper than the skin of the possessor, is the varnish necessary to the proper appearance of every coxcomb of trade.

In every walk of life, courtesy, is a negotiable and profitable commodity, and the possessor of it has something of actual cash values, always saleable on the block of business.

The polite man or woman is worth more commercially than the disagreeable person, even though the latter may possess double the ability of the former.

The outside of the salesman or saleswoman comes in contact with the buyer, and in very seldom that the inside is more than transiently displayed.

The apparent value of the seller must be reckoned largely by the appearance and actions of him or her.

The courteous person is better company, and is almost always appreciated.

Nothing injures a business more than a snappy, snarling, disagreeable representative.

The polite villain succeeds better than the saintly snarler.

Courtesy may be considered the varnish or polish of business; that which both covers up a multitude of discrepancies, and magnifies the virtues.

The piano case is no better, nor is the piano more sonorous, because the case is polished and varnished and re-varnished. But no piano would sell without this varnish. It simply makes the rosewood look and seem to be better. It displays the true intrinsic value of the wood underneath.

It is the same with courtesy.

The polite man, particularly if he be a seller, has about him something which places him in the best possible light and make it more agreeable for those that come in contact with him.

Courtesy may be considered both the light and the polish of business.

Courtesy gives the most, and costs the least, of anything adapted to business.

Courtesy should always be in stock.

I don't care what you do; you may be a manufacturer, a retailer, or a professional man; courtesy should be with you, in you, about you, always on hand, ready for immediate delivery.

Never be out of anything, including courtesy.

Courtesy is always acceptable, always wanted, always appreciated.

SAXTON GAINING STRENGTH

Joseph Bundy's Bullet Does Not Seem Likely to Prove Fatal.

It looks as if Isaac Saxton, of Darien, who was shot by Joseph Bundy never intended to die. Mr. Saxton is apparently recovering. His mind is clear, the pain has ceased and he is gaining strength every day. No one can tell what may happen but it looks now as if he took the "one chance in a thousand" and had won. Bundy is no longer begging to be sent to the state prison without a trial, but on the contrary he has engaged able counsel to defend him and will clear himself of the charge if possible.

PLANS PUBLIC BILL BOARDS

Sheriff Acheson Has a Scheme For Posting Legal Notices.

Bulletin boards are to be placed in public places about town for the sheriff, constables and attorneys to use in posting legal notices. This idea, which is practical, was suggested by Sheriff Acheson. In the past all notices have been stuck on the walls and side of public buildings making an untidy appearance.

WITH THE YARDMASTER.

There are thousands of young women today who have been seized with that awful yearning to take the stage. Women without one single accomplishment think they are natural born actresses.

At the opera, this "stage struck" girl, takes a seat in the dress circle. She carefully watches the leading lady, and every one else clear back to the third row of chorus singers. All of the artist's efforts to please the critic's eye, seem so simple to her. Then the show is out. She heaves a sigh of delight, and again kindles that hope to become an actress. The dawn of another day greets her, when she has awoken from a phantom of some feverish night mare, only to find that she is still living in hopes. Oh! maiden fair, what an exhibition of temerity! Poor girl, some one has foolishly told her that she had a fine voice, and with a little cultivating she could go on the stage and earn fifty dollars a week. Then she knows in her own mind, that she has dramatic ability. When she is quite alone, she will do some rehearsing. Looking off toward the cerulean skies, with knitted eye brows, and an attitude like Hero, while she was waiting for Leander to swim the Hellespont, she will recite something like this:

"Forty years ago this very night, my father was my mother's husband; and my brother was my father's son! I've not a moment to lose, for the iron horse will be here in one hour, and I've good reasons to believe that the Beloit detective is closely on me track."

Imaginary detective enters with an ax and cheese knife.

"Oh, kind sir, I beg of you, to take me life, but save me c-c-sheild!"

Out of every five thousand "stage struck" girls, there is one who can earn a living in front of the foot lights, on the legitimate stage. If there was a demand for artists like the Cherry Sisters, then the percentage would be larger.

A "stage struck" man does not live in hopes as long as a woman. When he fully decides that he can hold an audience, he simply goes to the manager of some theatre, and asks for a chance to show what he can do. If the manager decides to give him a trial, he simply tells him to "go on and do his turn." He may prove to be a success, and he may prove to be a "frost." At all events, the audience will soon let him know, what it thinks of him.

While I was living in the far west, many of my friends told me that I ought to go on the stage. They said my face was already made up for the stage and I could soon make my fortune. For a while I thought they were joking. But they were not. I thought the matter over and finally concluded to take the stage. I started an advance man into Montana where I was not known. He billed me in the town of Kalispell. The night came for me to appear. The house was packed. The thing I most feared was advertising myself as a funny man. A reader who advertises himself in Montana as a humorist had better get funny or somebody in the audience is apt to cripple him. Any way, I walked out on the stage that night and tried my utmost to appear funny but somehow I lost my individuality and stage fright came very near killing me. I talked for two hours—well I don't know what I was talking about, but when the show was over I went to the door keeper and told him the show was out. He said he was glad of it as he wanted to collect the rent for the hall. The balance of the audience had gone home an hour before that.

The next town I had no audience to talk to as my advance man was two days behind me, and no one had heard of me. I came to the conclusion that they did not know how to appreciate humor in that section, and I drifted to Chicago. I may say here, that I lost track of my advance man, and I have never heard of him from that day to this. I have often thought that he disbanded. When I reached Chicago, I went to Hopkins, and told him that I was a mirth-maker, and would like to have him give me a chance.

He said he would.

"Be on hand tomorrow at 2:30 p.m.," he said, "and you may go on."

I was on hand, and in due time my name was called. I gave a ten minute monologue, but the audience did not laugh, as they mistook me for the stage carpenter. When my trials were over, I met Mr. Hopkins in front of the theatre, and said to him:

"Well, what do you think of my work?"

"Oh, for a 'chaser' you are all right, and you can sign with me for a week."

I asked him what he meant by a chaser.

"Chasers," he said, "are bum artists we hire to run out the audience. We have to do that in a continuous show, or some people would stick from 2:30 in the afternoon, till 11 o'clock at night."

I left the big showman standing there, and I have never seen him since.

BUYERS START OUT
CHEERED BY RAINSHORT SHOWER PERMITS EX-AMINATION OF LEAF.

For Eight Weeks They Have Been Kept Idle By the Impossibility of Doing Anything Toward Determining the Quality of the Late 1897 Leaf.

It will take more rain than fell this week to give life to the tobacco business. A steady two days' downpour would be none too much to bring leaf into condition for stripping.

There can be no buying until the leaf is moist enough so it can be handled. Nobody questions that the early 1897 crop is of high quality but there are fears that some of the late leaf was cut too green and may not cure out well. This cannot be determined until the cured leaf can be handled. It has been so dry that it crumbled like burned paper. What little rain there has been improved conditions a little and dealers were riding in all directions today.

Large shipments to New York and other eastern points will be made by Janesville dealers next week. Ten cars have already been engaged from the C. M. & St. P.

Among the transactions reported by the Leaf are: 50 cases '96 sold by J. L. and M. F. Greene, 38 cases sold by S. R. Heddle; 216 cases sold by Fisher & Fisher; 45 cases old sold by Rudolph & Haviland; 75 cases old goods sold by Joseph Grundy, 30 cases '96 sold and 6 cases bought by Robert Erler, 125 cases sold by A. J. Ryan and 50 cases sold by Peterson and Tolleson of Oxford.

Some purchases of '97 crop have been made in this vicinity by S. S. Black, of West Alexandria, Ohio, who is said to have purchased about 200 acres at from 5 to 7 cents in the bundle and 1 to 1 1/2 for fillers.

The only important transaction in cured tobacco noted in Edgerton is the sale of 115 cases by Andrew Jenson, and a fifty case lot by E. C. Hopkins. A single sale from first hands is reported, that of A. Sluide, 46 cases '96, at 6 1/2 cents.

The G. C. Mansfield Creamery Co. have decided to convert the Edgerton creamery building, not now in use, into storage room for tobacco.

The frame for the new Kerbe, Wirtz & Schiffer warehouse in Edgerton is nearly up.

George Underhill broke ground in Edgerton Monday morning for a new 64 feet addition to the Schroeder & Bonn warehouse, increasing the storage capacity of the building at least 1,000 cases.

Geo. H. Rumrill shipped a car of tobacco from this city and two from Evansville Monday.

Rudolph & Haviland shipped a car of tobacco to Kingston, Canada, Wednesday.

Soverhill & Porter sampled 116 cases of export Tuesday.

J. A. Decker shipped eight car loads of tobacco east this week.

J. L. & M. F. Greene shipped a car load of '96 from Milton Monday.

"BOY WANTED" HERE TONIGHT

Charles Blaney's Farce-Comedy Holds the Boards at Myers Grand

Many specialties are introduced in Charles Blaney's "A Boy Wanted," which will be given at the opera house this evening. In the first act the angry tragedian in search of the editor of "The Evening Keg," becomes entangled in one of the huge presses and is drawn through and comes out in the evening edition printed on his wearing apparel. The second act presents the exterior of the Starview Hotel. In this act a number of clever mechanical effects are introduced, and among the specialties are the Sisters Gehrie's personation or the "Ideal Girl," Raymond Finlay, assisted by Miss Nina Gillette, in their specialty, "The Same Thing Over and Over Again," and a few illustrations of their experience while riding in an electric car. In the first act Eddie Herron, who plays the part of "Phoney Dice," has challenged "Cough Drop Ed," the runner for the opposition hotel, to fight to a finish. Miss O'Neil, who plays the soubrette part, offers to train him, and shows Mr. Herron a few of "Cough Drop Ed's" weak points, in a lively three-round act, which is not only artistic, but scientific, and would be a credit to a number of the pugilists whom we read of every day. The last act shows the Starview Hotel at night, where a few pleasing specialties are introduced, the first being that of Miss Frances Hartley in her negro melody songs, followed by Bryant and Saville, musical team.

TIME

A BARBAROUS SURGICAL OPERATION
For the Cure of Piles.ANNUAL LA PRAIRIE FESTIVAL
Sunday School Meeting of Much Interest
Held Last Evening.

The weather, although rough, did not prevent "old men and maidens, young men and children" from meeting to celebrate according to time honored custom the round up for the season. Mrs. George Sherman being master of ceremonies, insured good order and cheer. The bright illumination which spread far off on the prairie, the cheerful faces of the children and happiness of young people, combined to make the older ones feel they were children too. One of the pleasing features of the evening was the military drill without arms. It was perfect save a few awkward moves by raw recruits. During the drill the rooms were being filled with the aroma of delicious coffee. The supper was such as only the ladies of La Prairie can give. Roast turkey and duck are delicacies not usual on such occasions. Bon bon boxes were in high favor, and there were numberless varieties of great cakes and pies, conspicuous among which were a dozen or more varieties of the delectable deep tin pumpkin.

Supper over all repaired to the assembly hall where a literary feast was spread. Several of Janesville's people participated. Mr. Nott's garrulous recitations, John N. Olson in his inimitable manner kept the audience in good humor. The work of the young gentlemen and ladies was unique and gratifying. The Misses Giesen helped in making it a success.

The treasurer's report showed over $20 on hand. The average attendence for the season was 45. An appropriation was made for an orphanage at Van, Turkey, in which the schools of the county are uniting. After resolutions of thanks to Mrs. Sherman and teachers, the gathering broke up having enjoyed an evening of rare pleasure.

THE CONT OF A THEORY.

Ultra-pure voters have much to answer for this year. They entered the field in New York with the declaration that neither of the old parties was good enough for them. Settled organization and experience counted for nothing in their belief. They proposed to smash Tammany and ignore the republicans. That was a large undertaking, yet the egotists who imagined that they belonged to a new and improved order of men and politicians rushed into it with as much confidence in their power and skill as in their personal superiority. The result is that Greater New York must contend for the next four years with Crokerism entrenched and strengthened as it never was before.

The republican party in New York had every reason to maintain that it held the vantage ground. Last year it carried every county in the state except one that is insignificant in size. It swept New York city and Brooklyn. The present mayor of New York city, is a republican and an efficient officer. Under his administration the city has been cleaned up and made reputable. In spite of all this the third party, which had come into existence in a single night, treated the republican organization as a thing of no consequence. They assumed to be something better and more effective. Tammany's tremendous victory is the sequel.

Taking these third party egotists and visionaries at their own estimate, thousands of republicans in New York City gave them their votes, thinking it best to unite in some form against the common enemy. In doing this they forgot their state ticket, and everything went down in one crash.

The ascendancy of Crokerism during the next four years furnishes the strongest possible comment on the ruin that a band of theorists has within its power.

A NOTABLE ACHIEVEMENT.

Republicans have been altogether too modest in regard to the Maryland election. The state has been carried again on the state ticket and Baltimore is republican by a large plurality. Senator Gorman is defeated. This is an important gain and relieves the senate of its most expert democratic manager and trimmer. Maryland will have two republican senators. It has solid representation of six republican members in the house, and the state offices are filled by republicans. This is a notable political revolution in a state long supposed to be rock-ribbed in its democracy.

John Bull, in allowing himself to become nervous over the prospects of war between the United States and Spain, is going through a lot of entirely needless worry. There will be no war between this country and Spain. If Spain gets too fresh we will give her a thorough spanking, but there will be nothing in the proceedings to dignify by the name of war.

Colonel Hay, the present United States ambassador to Great Britain, is showing Englishmen the difference between maintaining a friendly attitude towards them, and truckling towards them, which was a specialty of Mr. Bayard, the Cleveland ambassador.

HELD SOCIAL AND RECITAL

Church People Gave Two Entertainments
In the City Last Evening.

The Mystery social at the Presbyterian church last night was strikingly successful. From the first number on the program, a selection by Gilmore's band attired in ghostly garb, to the opening of mystery boxes at the bargaining counter, the illusion suggested by the title was well maintained. During the evening there were recitations by Miss Marie Hamilton, and little Daisy, Dolly and Beile MacLean.

At the recital in the Sunday School room of Court Street church last evening there were readings by Miss Trevitt of Minneapolis, a piano solo by Miss Mae Hyde and a vocal solo by Master Claude Cochrane and Miss Lulu McDonald. Accompaniments were by Mrs. W. S. Jeffris and Miss Leona B. Stevens. The audience was small but thoroughly appreciative.

OUR HIGH SCHOOL A BIG ONE

Second in the State the Figures Show--- $18,045.60 in Treasury

At the regular monthly meeting of the school board last evening, it was reported that Janesville has the largest high school attendance in the state outside of Milwaukee. Bills against the various funds amounting to $893.60 were allowed and the clerk reported $18,045.60 in the treasury for the school fund. His tuition account from April 19, to date showed $390.50 paid-in.

The purchase of a new furnace for the Adams school was referred to the building committee.

George P. Tole was appointed substitute janitor at the old high school to take the place of Janitor Ben. R. Hill, who is on the sick list.

CITY TAKES WATER WORKS

Edgerton Will Assume $28,500 Worth of Bonds Payable Monthly.

The Edgerton city council will assume control of the water works plant, under the purchase option in the franchise granted W. H. Wheeler & Co. The city takes charge of the plant subject to the bonded indebtedness of $28,500 placed by Wheeler & Co., which is to be paid in monthly hydrant rentals, fixed in the franchise. The bonds draw low interest, and are made payable over a long series of years so that the fixed hydrant rental will extinguish the debt in thirty years. The last bonds become due in 1922, though the city has an option to pay them in 1900. The monthly hydrant rental amounts to $152.95.

BIKE BUILDER IS DOUBTFUL

S. E. Powers Says He Has Very Little Faith in Chainless Wheels.

S. E. Powers, maker of the "Powers Special" bicycle, was in the city today on his way home from Lake Koshkonong. With him was Earl Donaldson, the rider. Mr. Powers declared that he had little confidence in the chainless wheel, and that his experience as machinist in some of the big English shops makes him skeptical as to bevelled gears.

EDGERTON FAILURES DUE TO THE BANK

ALEXANDER SHUMAN HAS MADE AN ASSIGNMENT.

He Owed Money to the Defunct Bank and Creditors Pressed Him—Details of the Failure of the Leedle Milling Co.—The Receiver Is In Charge.

Two failures attributed to the bank troubles are reported from Edgerton. Alexander Shuman of the firm of Shuman & Stewart, tobacco dealers, made a personal assignment yesterday to E. C. Hopkins. Accommodation paper given Cashier Burnham and his indebtedness to the Bank of Edgerton led to the assignment. His assess consist mainly of 1,000 cases of tobacco.

The failure of the Leedle Milling Co., mentioned in The Gazette Tuesday, is less serious than was at first supposed. William Phillips, the assignee, has installed R. S. Roufe as receiver. An inventory of the stock on hand was made and the mill has since been open for custom grinding. The Leedle Milling Co. was organized something over two years ago. W. H. Leedle, who formerly had a mill at Cooksville, moved his machinery to Edgerton and put it in the old tobacco factory building which was bought by Henry Marsden. The interest of Mr. Leedle was figured at $6,000 and Marsden's at $4,000. These two people with C. L. Burnham with an interest of $1,000, were supposed to compose the Leedle Milling company, but now it transpires that aside from the filing of the articles of incorporation no such company was ever formed. At least no stock was ever issued or money paid into the company by Burnham.

It cost in the neighborhood of $3,500 to fix over the mill and place it in running condition, involving considerable debt, which has been carried by the Bank of Edgerton. The mill was fitted up with a complete roller process for flour grinding, but the main business has been done in custom work, of which it had a large run, especially during the winter season. The company would have pulled through all right, as it owed but small debts, but for the fact that it became known that the bank held their paper for a considerable amount, when the small creditors began to press their claims, and an assignment became necessary.

THIRTY FOOT FALL OF 5-YEAR-OLD BOY

WILLIE OSMUND'S NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

Playing With His Sister the Little Fellow Tries to Scale the Main Street Trestle and Loses His Footing, Dropping Back Into the Street.

While playing near the top of the North Main street railroad trestle this afternoon, Willie Osmund, the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Osmund of North Fifth street, lost his footing and fell to the street, a distance of thirty feet.

The body struck the ground with a thud and the boy lay limp and silent. He struck fairly on his head and was rendered unconscious.

Fred Little and James Smith who stood near picked up the apparently lifeless form and bore it to the Osmund home a block away. The boy remained unconscious until the arrival of Dr. M. A. Cunningham.

An examination showed that the skull was not fractured. There were several wounds one over the right eye being an inch and a half in length. Several stitches were required to close another gash on the right leg.

Chloroform was used to allay the pain as soon as the boy returned to his senses.

Annie Osmund, nine years old, was playing with her brother at the time of the accident. She said that she and Willie started to climb to the top of the bridge from Main street by scaling the stone facing. Willie was ahead and had just reached the top when he lost his footing, screamed and went over into the street.

Dr. Cunningham says the boy's injuries are not necessarily dangerous but he has been badly shocked.

The Prosperity Of Our Store Is Remarkable. . . .

The business lines we follow make the increase of sales a surety. It's natural they should; they are sound, common sense, and appeal in every way to Shoe buyers. It is no small matter—this getting and retaining public confidence, and this, the one most necessary point in any merchant's business—confidence in your word; confidence in your goods; confidence in your prices. All of these any successful business house has and all of these we have.

We take good care of our trade and never disappoint them in any manner. We are selling all classes of Shoes at a lower price, on a closer margin, than we ever have before in the history of our business. Of course we make a profit but we are obliged to sell double the amount each year to make up the same profit of former years. We are doing even more than this. We find the plan increases trade to very large proportions. Every line in the house has been squeezed to the lowest price nytce. If you knew the exceeding small margin we make on many of them you would wonder at our rashness. But that's our business. Suffice it to say we are the lowest priced Shoe dealers in the city. This you can thoroughly believe.
